

February is Teen Dating Violence Awareness Month

Young adult dating violence is a big problem, affecting youth in every community across the nation. One in three adolescents in the U.S. is a victim of physical, sexual, emotional or verbal abuse from a dating partner.

Did you know?

- Young people age 12 to 19 experience the highest rate of rape and sexual assault?
- Teenagers age 18 and 19 experience the highest rates of stalking?
- 1 in 3 adolescent girls in the US are a victim of physical, emotional or verbal abuse from a dating partner?
- The most dangerous time for potential violence is during the breakup period?

Help spread awareness by participating in the nationwide orange-out this February. Wear orange on February 9th and get as many people as you can to wear something orange in honor of Teen Dating Violence Awareness Month and promote respect and healthy relationships! Tell people why you are wearing it and post pictures and updates on social media using hashtags #Orange4Love and #RespectWeek 2016.
